

Leaders Depart After Taking Part in Arab Summit

Doha, March 26 (QNA)

A number of Arab leaders who took part in the 24th Arab summit conference, under way in Doha, have left the country. The leaders are King Hamad Bin Issa of Bahrain, King Abdullah II of Jordan, the UAE Vice President Sheikh Mohamed Bin Rashid Al Maktoum, the Omani Deputy Premier for Cabinet Affairs Fahd Bin Mhamoud Al Saeed.

Egyptian President Leaves Doha

Egyptian President Dr. Mohammed Morsy left Doha today after participating in the 24th Arab Summit, which concluded in Doha on Tuesday.

Emir of Kuwait, Saudi Crown Prince Leaves Doha

The Emir of Kuwait Sheikh Sabah Al-Ahmad Al-Jaber Al-Sabah, and Saudi Crown Prince, Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Defence Prince Salman bin Abdulaziz Al Saud left Doha this evening after participating in the 24th Arab Summit, which concluded in Doha today.

The Emir of Kuwait and the Saudi Crown Prince were seen off on their departure at Doha International Airport by HE Minister of State Sheikh Abdulrahman bin Saud Al Thani.

(QNA)